CALL US

Every trip starts with a phone call or an email. You ask us questions, we ask you questions, and we get to know one another. Once we have a clear sense of your travel style and trip request we can figure out how we can best accommodate your requests!

PICK A PLACE AND DECIDE ON DATES

Perhaps you already know exactly where you want to go and when. Or maybe you haven't got a clue. No worries either way. We're here to bounce ideas around, provide inspiration and help you narrow down the options for specific destinations and dates. Assuming you decide you'd like us to plan your journey; we'll complete this step by gathering some personal information and collecting a non-refundable deposit which will be applied towards your trip.

BUILD THE FRAMEWORK

Now that we know your decision of where and when, we'll work with you to establish the basic design of your trip. We'll review villa options and decide which ones are best for you, figure out the pacing and flow, and discuss the various things to see and do.

The end result will be an initial itinerary, which outlines the basic shape of your trip and provides an approximate vacation price. Think of it as a blueprint; an accurate yet incomplete picture.

COLOUR IN DAYS

Let's add some colour to your plan! You know where you're going and where you'll be sleeping each night. But what do you want to do each day? We'll direct you to excursions and experiences that suit your personality and craft the plans until each day has as much (or as little) structure as you'd like. This is where it really becomes your trip. As soon as we're clear on what you want to do we'll tentatively reserve all arrangements.

As soon as you're ready to pull the trigger, you will receive a confirmation email.

APPROVE + BOOK

✓ FINE TUNE

At this point, all arrangements are secured and your trip is confirmed. But it's not etched in stone and we'll continue to flesh things out and fine tune.

We'll discuss options for eating and drinking, as always, steering you to places we think you'll love. We'll happily adjust arrangements and reconfirm final reservations, making any changes to the trip price if applicable. Okay, almost there. We'll send you the final itinerary.

📋 GET READY

Before you depart, we will send you the travel confirmation to your registered email. This is your final travel document containing all the information you need to know. Once you have your customised trip in hand, we will review with you all the arrangements and answer any questions.
